4 Speak
Vocabulary

Return to important words and the moments in which they appear in the reading.

STEP 1 • READ

Reading Comprehension

Answer from the text. Keep factual responses concise and cite supporting pages in parentheses.

- 1 What does Thomas remember when he first wakes up in the Box, and what important things has he forgotten?

- 2 How is the Glade described when Thomas first arrives, and what makes the place feel both organized and frightening?

- 3 Who are Alby, Newt, Chuck, and Gally, and how does each character respond to Thomas in his first few days?

- 4 What does Thomas learn about the Maze, the Runners, the Grievers, and the rule that no one is allowed to enter the Maze at night?

- 5 What unusual events happen after Thomas arrives, including Ben's attack, the arrival of the girl, and Minho's early return from the Maze?

STEP 2 • THINK

Critical Thinking & Analysis

Interpret the reading. Give your reasoning and point to specific evidence from the text.

- 1 The novel begins with Thomas waking up in darkness with almost no memory. Why is this an effective way to begin the story?

- 2 Thomas remembers general knowledge about the world, but not his personal identity or past relationships. What does this suggest about the difference between knowledge and identity?

- 3 The Glade has rules, jobs, leaders, and punishments, even though the boys are trapped. What does this suggest about the importance of order in a dangerous situation?

4

Alby often seems harsh and impatient with Thomas, while Newt is more understanding. Why might the novel present two different types of leadership so early in the story?

5

Chuck is younger and less powerful than many of the other boys, but he quickly tries to help Thomas. Why is Chuck important to Thomas's adjustment to the Glade?

6

Gally immediately distrusts Thomas and claims that he has seen him before. How does Gally's suspicion create tension and mystery in the opening chapters?

7

Thomas feels afraid of the Maze, yet he is also strongly drawn to becoming a Runner. What does this reveal about his character?

8

The Maze is physically dangerous, but it also represents mystery, control, and the unknown. What might the Maze symbolize in these early chapters?

9

By the end of Lesson 1, does Thomas seem more like a helpless victim or someone with unusual potential? Explain your reasoning using specific moments from the text.

STEP 3 • WRITE

Paragraph Writing

Develop a clear response. Make a claim, support it with evidence, and explain the connection.

1 Choose ONE of the following prompts:

1. In Chapters 1-12, Thomas enters the Glade with no memory, no control, and very few answers. How does James Dashner use Thomas's confusion to help the reader experience the mystery of the Glade?
2. The Glade is a prison-like place, but it also has rules, jobs, friendships, and leadership. What do these chapters suggest about how people create order when they are trapped in fear?
3. Thomas is repeatedly warned to stay away from the Maze, yet he feels a powerful desire to understand it and become a Runner. What does this conflict suggest about courage, curiosity, and survival?
