READING WORKBOOK

The Box and the Glade

Chapters 1-12

Thomas enters the Glade without a past and must learn its rules before he can decide whether to challenge them.

FOR THIS LESSON

Answer comprehension questions in complete sentences and support analysis answers with text details. For writing, choose one prompt and write a well-developed paragraph with a clear topic sentence, evidence, and explanation.

IN THIS LESSON

Reading Comprehension · Step 1 Read · 5 questions

Critical Thinking & Analysis · Step 2 Think · 9 questions

Paragraph Writing · Step 3 Write · 1 prompt

Vocabulary · Step 4 Speak · 20 words

Writing your answers in Google Docs? Label each answer with its code — L1-C2, L1-A1, and so on — so your tutor can match your responses to the workbook.

STEP 1 • READ

Reading Comprehension

Answer from the text. Keep factual responses concise and cite supporting pages in parentheses.

- 1 What does Thomas remember when he first wakes up in the Box, and what important things has he forgotten?

- 2 How is the Glade described when Thomas first arrives, and what makes the place feel both organized and frightening?

- 3 Who are Alby, Newt, Chuck, and Gally, and how does each character respond to Thomas in his first few days?

- 4 What does Thomas learn about the Maze, the Runners, the Grievors, and the rule that no one is allowed to enter the Maze at night?

- 5 What unusual events happen after Thomas arrives, including Ben's attack, the arrival of the girl, and Minho's early return from the Maze?

STEP 2 • THINK

Critical Thinking & Analysis

Interpret the reading. Give your reasoning and point to specific evidence from the text.

- 1 The novel begins with Thomas waking up in darkness with almost no memory. Why is this an effective way to begin the story?

- 2 Thomas remembers general knowledge about the world, but not his personal identity or past relationships. What does this suggest about the difference between knowledge and identity?

- 3 The Glade has rules, jobs, leaders, and punishments, even though the boys are trapped. What does this suggest about the importance of order in a dangerous situation?

4

Alby often seems harsh and impatient with Thomas, while Newt is more understanding. Why might the novel present two different types of leadership so early in the story?

5

Chuck is younger and less powerful than many of the other boys, but he quickly tries to help Thomas. Why is Chuck important to Thomas's adjustment to the Glade?

6

Gally immediately distrusts Thomas and claims that he has seen him before. How does Gally's suspicion create tension and mystery in the opening chapters?

7

Thomas feels afraid of the Maze, yet he is also strongly drawn to becoming a Runner. What does this reveal about his character?

8

The Maze is physically dangerous, but it also represents mystery, control, and the unknown. What might the Maze symbolize in these early chapters?

9

By the end of Lesson 1, does Thomas seem more like a helpless victim or someone with unusual potential? Explain your reasoning using specific moments from the text.

STEP 3 • WRITE

Paragraph Writing

Develop a clear response. Make a claim, support it with evidence, and explain the connection.

1 Choose ONE of the following prompts:

1. In Chapters 1-12, Thomas enters the Glade with no memory, no control, and very few answers. How does James Dashner use Thomas's confusion to help the reader experience the mystery of the Glade?
2. The Glade is a prison-like place, but it also has rules, jobs, friendships, and leadership. What do these chapters suggest about how people create order when they are trapped in fear?
3. Thomas is repeatedly warned to stay away from the Maze, yet he feels a powerful desire to understand it and become a Runner. What does this conflict suggest about courage, curiosity, and survival?

Paragraph Writing · Step 3 Write · 1 prompt

Vocabulary · Step 4 Speak · 20 words

Writing your answers in Google Docs? Label each answer with its code — L2-C2, L2-A1, and so on — so your tutor can match your responses to the workbook.

STEP 1 • READ

Reading Comprehension

Answer from the text. Keep factual responses concise and cite supporting pages in parentheses.

- 1 What happens when Thomas, Minho, and Alby survive the night in the Maze, and how do the other Gladers react when they return?

- 2 Why is Thomas punished after entering the Maze, and what unexpected reward does he receive afterward?

- 3 What does Minho begin teaching Thomas about the Runners' work, including the Maps, the sections of the Maze, and the daily routine?

- 4 What do the Gladers learn about the girl after she arrives, and why does her message cause fear and confusion?

- 5 What strange change happens to the sky and the Glade, and why does this make the boys feel that their world is no longer stable?

STEP 2 • THINK

Critical Thinking & Analysis

Interpret the reading. Give your reasoning and point to specific evidence from the text.

- 1 Thomas breaks one of the Glade's most important rules by entering the Maze, but his actions save lives. What does this suggest about the difference between obedience and doing what is right?

- 2 Minho originally seems sarcastic and impatient, but he becomes important to Thomas's growth. How does Minho's relationship with Thomas help develop Thomas as a character?

- 3 The Runners are respected because they face the Maze every day, but their work also depends on discipline, memory, and careful record-keeping. What does this suggest about the novel's definition of bravery?

4

Thomas's promotion to Runner creates disagreement among the Keepers. Why might the other Gladers feel threatened or suspicious of him?

5

The girl's arrival changes the pattern of life in the Glade because she is the first girl and because she brings the message that "everything is going to change." Why is this moment important to the structure of the story?

6

The Glade's normal routine begins to break down after Thomas arrives. How does Dashner use these changes to create suspense and show that the Gladers' sense of safety was fragile?

7

Thomas feels a strange connection to the girl even though he does not fully understand why. How does this connection deepen the mystery of his identity and past?

8

The Maps seem like a practical tool, but they also represent the Gladers' hope of escape. Why is it important that the boys continue mapping the Maze even when they have not found a way out?

9

By the end of Lesson 2, does Thomas's arrival seem like a danger to the Glade or a possible turning point for escape? Explain your reasoning using specific moments from the text.

2. The Gladers depend on routine, rules, and order to survive, but after Thomas and the girl arrive, that order begins to collapse. How does Dashner show that safety in the Glade is only temporary?
3. The Maze is not only a physical challenge but also a puzzle that requires patience, intelligence, and teamwork. How do these chapters show that survival depends on both courage and strategy?

LESSON 4

READING WORKBOOK

The Code in the Maps

Chapters 37-48

The Gladers lose the routines that once protected them and begin turning the Maze's patterns into a plan.

FOR THIS LESSON

Answer comprehension questions in complete sentences and support analysis answers with text details. For writing, choose one prompt and write a well-developed paragraph with a clear topic sentence, evidence, and explanation.

IN THIS LESSON

Reading Comprehension · Step 1 Read · 5 questions

Critical Thinking & Analysis · Step 2 Think · 9 questions

Paragraph Writing · Step 3 Write · 1 prompt

Vocabulary · Step 4 Speak · 16 words

Writing your answers in Google Docs? Label each answer with its code — L4-C2, L4-A1, and so on — so your tutor can match your responses to the workbook.

STEP 1 • READ

Reading Comprehension

Answer from the text. Keep factual responses concise and cite supporting pages in parentheses.

- 1 What happens when the Doors of the Maze stop closing at night, and how does this change life in the Glade?

- 2 How do the Grievers begin attacking the Gladers, and what pattern do the Gladers notice about whom the Grievers take?

- 3 What happens to the Maps, and why does this seem like a serious problem at first?

- 4 What important discovery do Thomas, Minho, and the others make when they compare the Maps from different days?

- 5 Why does Thomas decide to get stung by a Griever, and what does he hope to learn through the Changing?

STEP 2 • THINK

Critical Thinking & Analysis

Interpret the reading. Give your reasoning and point to specific evidence from the text.

- 1 The Gladers used to believe that the Maze walls closing at night protected them. What does it mean symbolically when the Doors stop closing?

- 2 The Grievors begin taking one Glader each night instead of killing everyone at once. Why is this method especially terrifying, and what does it reveal about the Creators' control over the boys?

- 3 The burning of the Maps seems like a disaster, but it also forces the Gladers to think differently. How does this moment show the difference between losing hope and adapting under pressure?

4

The hidden code in the Maps suggests that the Maze was never random. How does this discovery change the meaning of the Maze?

5

Thomas chooses to get stung even though he knows it will cause extreme pain. What does this decision reveal about his courage and his sense of responsibility?

6

Through the Changing, Thomas begins to recover memories that connect him to the Creators and the Maze. Why might this make him feel guilty even if he cannot fully remember his past choices?

7

Teresa and Thomas are able to communicate telepathically and seem to share a mysterious connection to the experiment. How does their relationship complicate the Gladers' trust in them?

- 8 In these chapters, the Gladers move from simply surviving inside the Glade to actively planning escape. What causes this shift?

- 9 By the end of Lesson 4, does fear divide the Gladers or push them toward action? Explain your reasoning using specific moments from the text.

STEP 3 • WRITE

Paragraph Writing

Develop a clear response. Make a claim, support it with evidence, and explain the connection.

1 Choose ONE of the following prompts:

1. In Chapters 37-48, the Glade changes from a place of routine survival into a place of immediate danger. How does Dashner show that comfort and safety can disappear when people are trapped inside a controlled system?
2. Thomas decides to sacrifice his own comfort and safety by getting stung in order to recover memories. What do these chapters suggest about courage, sacrifice, and leadership?
3. The discovery of the code proves that the Maze has a hidden design and purpose. How does this change the Gladers' understanding of their situation and their hope for escape?

- 2 The Gladers must choose between staying in the Glade and risking death in the Maze. What does this choice suggest about the difference between survival and freedom?

- 3 Some Gladers refuse to join the escape attempt because they are too afraid. Why is this reaction understandable, and what does it show about the psychological power of the Maze?

9

By the end of the novel, what message does The Maze Runner suggest about courage, memory, sacrifice, and hope? Explain your reasoning using specific moments from the text.
